

liangs the green earth, swinging, twin ing,

Noiseless, jarless, safe and slow.
Falls the light of God's love bending
Down and watching us below.

Bo like little babes that suffer, Toss and moan and will not rest, Are the ones the tender mother Holds the closest, loves the best

And when we are weak and wretched, With our sins weighed down, distrassed when it is that God's great patience Holds us closest, loves us best.

Heavenly Father, in thy pity,
Save me from myself to-duy,—
I am weak, but Thou canst give me
All the strength for which I pray.

And when at last I stand before Thee, rant me Father, in Thy mercy, Pard'ning love and rest at last.

Weddings of the Week.

The first week of October will be gay in Richmond with nuptial celebrations, the quota of autumn weeddings taking in many popular young people in whom society is greatly interested.

The weedding of Miss Sara Heron Har-

The wedding of Alsa Saik Heron Lar-vie to Mr. Harvey Randolph Wayt is scheduled for the evening of October 5th, at 5:30 o'clock, the Rev. Landon R. Mason, of Grace Episcopal Church, to

The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James 3. Cannon, of No. 121 South Third Street, and will be witnessed by the families and altimate friends of the contracting partial than the strains of Lonengrins weathing march, rendered by Mrs. L. H. Thornton of Blackstone.

The ushers were Mr. Percy Clarke and Mr. Covington Hardy,
The bride was attired in white organdy with long yell, and carried roses. The intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride, gowned in white silk mull over taffeta and carrying bride's roses, will come in with her father, Mr. James Blair Harvie, who will give her away. She will be attended by Mrs. James E. Cannon as matron of honor, in a beautiful layender crepe de chine gown, embroidered with orchids, Mr. Allan Sheppard will be Mr. Wayt's best man.

The bride and groom will be at No. 200 South Third Street after October 20th. Dr. David Meade Mann will have Dr. John P. Davidson as his best man. His marriage to Miss Charlle Virginia Austin will take place quietly, October 6th, at 7 P. M., in the home of the bride's paronts, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunter Austin, of Lewisburg, West Virginia, sued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Grace Flippen, to Mr. Howard Wayt King, the ceremony to take place Thursday evening. October 6th, at 6:30 sday evening, October 6th, at 6:30 ck, in Park Place Methodist Church, are also out for the wedding of

Emma Louise, the daughter of Mr. Irs. Julian Schumann, to Mr. Ar-lee Mattern, on Tuesday, October it one o'clock P. M. in St. John's bth, at 1. No. 708 North Twenty-fifth Street bride, No. 708 North Twenty-fifth Street The Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Leigh Street Baptist Church, will officiate, Miss King is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William King, and is exceedingly popular with a large circle of friends in the

Give The Bride Sterling Silver.

No gift is more lastingly appropriate nor as universally appreciated. You'll find here an elegant assortment of the latest creations in allverware — pleces, ranging from artistic elegance to those of more dignified simplicity.

simplicity.
We cordially invite your inspection. As usual, the prices make things interesting.

Schwarzschild Bros., JEWELERS, Cor. Broad and Second Sts.

Out-of-Town Weddings.

Out-of-Town Weddings.

Of interest to Richmond friends will be the wedding in Upper King and Queen Baptist Church, at 3 P. M., October 5th, of Miss Mary Bates Madison, the daughter of Mrs. Nora Bates Madison, the daughter of Mrs. Nora Bates Madison, the daughter of Mrs. Nora Bates Madison to Mr. Josah Ryland Turpin, of Aylet's King William county, a well known and highly esteemed clizen of that section. The prominence of the contracting parties and their wide acquaintance in Richmond, will invest the celebration, which will be a very handsome and fashionable affair, with universal attractiveness.

Miss Marle Louise Abell, the daughter of Mr. Walter R. Abell, of Winchester, Va., will be married to Mr. Joseph F. Edwards, of Philadelphia, Wednesday, October 5th. in the Baitimore home of Mrs. Abell, No. 705 Cathedral Street, where a nuptial mass will be celebrated.

Light Proposed Science of the paster and his family their best wishes for a bright, prosperous and happy future.

Retreat for the Sick.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick have found it necessary to enlarge their capacity for the accommodation of private patients. The institution of private patients. The institution has done a great work in the past, and the managers look for a greater work during the coming year. Miss Ada Arundell, who is at the Retreat for the Sick.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick have found it necessary to enlarge their capacity for the accommodation of private patients.

The institution has remily their best wishes for a bright, prosperous and happy future.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick have found it necessary to enlarge their capacity for the accommodation of private patients.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick have found it necessary to enlarge their capacity for the accommodation of private patients.

The institution has for the science of the sick have found it necessary to enlarge their capacity for the acc

Hatchett-Hardy.

A beautiful marriage was celebrated on ednesday afternoon, September 28th, Wednesday afternoon, September 28th, at Mizpah Christian Church, Dinwiddle at Mizpah Christian Church, Dinwiddle county, Virginia.

The contracting parties were Miss Ollie Lee Hardy, of Dinwiddle, and Mr. Craig Hatchett, of Lunenburg.
The church was decorated with green and white, (and the bride stood under a lovely foral horse shee), the whole presenting quite a pleasing appearance. Mr. Walton Bell, of Lunenburg, was best man, and Miss Louisa Delhi, of Ford's, was maid of honor.
The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. L. H. Thornton, of Blackstone.

The ushers were Mr. Percy Clarke and with long veil, and carried roses. The presents were numerous and costly.

Engagements Announced. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sullivan announce he engagement of their daughter, May, o Mr. P. Morrison Fitzgerald, the mar-

In Honor of Mrs. Robinson. On Tuesday afternoon, September the 27th, "The Grove," the elegant home of Mrs. John MacLaren Mac Bryde was the seene of a brilliant reception given in honor of Mr. R. H. P. Robinson, of Richmond, Va.

Miss Hale Austin will be maid of honor to the bride. When Dr. and Mrs. Mann return to the city about November 1st, they will reside at No. 9 North Third Street.

At 3:20 o'clock Thursday afternoon, October 5th, Miss Lucile Beverly Kelm, the daughter of Mrs. Reverly Randolph Kelm, of Philadelphia, will become the bride of Mr. Parke Benjamin Tallaferro, of this city.

A reception, to be given in the Kelm home, No. 1320 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, will follow the wedding. Mrs. Edward Miss Mary G. Lacy, of Wytheville, presided at the total she, while Miss Maria Lawson Bolton and Mirs. R. James Davidson.

Miss Mary G. Lacy, of Wytheville, presided at the total she, while Miss Thomas, of Charleston, S. C. poured chocolate. Mrs. Halferro, who will officiate as ribbon girl. The bride-to-be, Miss Kelm has visited in Richmond and made a most charming impression bere.

Another marriage for October 5th, is that of Miss Elizabeth Madison Morrison, the daughter of Mrs. Hackley Morrison, to Mr. George Minor Meredith.

The ceremony will take place at 6:20 o'clock P. M. in St. James Church, and among the attendants will be Miss Rosa Siephenson, Miss Julia and Miss Page Lane, and Mr. John Stockdell, of Petersburg, Va.

Mr and Mrs. John H. Redd have issued invitations for the marriage of their days and more of the marriage of their days and the proposed with parliary will called head to the complete of the marriage of their days and the complete of the proposed with the follows the more of the during two mand and will called policy will also prove the proposed with the filling plant with trimmings of the distinct of turquoise blue.

The honors of the dining toom were gracefully done by Miss Maria Lawson and the plant of turquoise blue.

The honors of the dining toom were gracefully done by Miss Maria Lawson and the plant of turquoise blue.

The honors of the dining toom were gracefully done by Miss Maria Lawson and the plant of turquoise blue.

The Submart Indive, which was most becoming the tat ables were decorated with Mr reception, which will be one of the most elegant events of the opening autumn scason.

The club parlors and halls will be artistically decorated with autumn flowers and sprays of Virginia creeper, the club flower. There will be music and, if the flovely October weather continues, the reception will take many of the features of a garden party, for which the spacious grounds and plazza are specially adapted.

The anniversary, in view of what the club has achieved since its organization in a few rooms on Main Street ten years a go, marks everything in the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's olubs own so spacious and handsome a German Evangelical Church, this city. The young couple will be at home after Detober 20th, at No. 410 East Leigh Street.

The wedding of Miss Augusta Wanda Rosenegk to Mr. Frederick William Grimmell, taking place Wednesday evening, October 5th, at 8 o'clock, in St. John's German Evangelical Church, will be followed by a reception after the ceremony, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred von N. Rosenegk of "Rosy's Rest," Cary Street, November ist, at No. 1803 Grace Street, West.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Grace Street, West.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Grace Street, November 1st, at No. 1803 Grace Street, November 1st, at No. 1803 Grace Street, November 1st, at No. 1803 Grace Street, Nest.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Grace King, to Mr. Ernest Fox. The ceremony, October 5th, at 1 o'clock, in the home of the bride, No. 708 North Twenty-fifth Street. The Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Leigh Street

The Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Leigh Street

Tockober 20th, at No. 410 East Leigh Street occompany them to the red for Miss Chirally promise and handsome a complishment and progress. Few women's elumination of the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's elumination of the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's elumination of the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's elumination of the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's elumination of the place of the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's few women and handsome a houndsome a lound from the line of accomplishment and progress. Few women's few women and handsome a lounder her direction.

The class promises more than ever this set the remembership, one can present a fine r membership, one can present a fine r membership, one can present a fine r membership.

The anniversary, in view of what the line of accomplant in a few rooms and handsome a lounder her direction.

The class promises more than ever this deturn, the clas

Harris.
Young ladies invited to serve are Miss
Bessie Tompkins, Miss Neilie Davenport,
Miss Courtenay Crump, Miss Leila Blair,
Miss Ellen Anderson, Miss Jessie Hazard, Miss Ruth Hebbard, Miss Rebecca
Walker, Miss Neilie Gordon, Miss Rena
Glazebrook, Miss Elizabeth Wheat, Miss
Juliet Keith, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss
Elsie Moncure, Miss Mary Aylett and Miss Laura Rutherfoord.

Laura Rutherfoord. Church Sociables.

A delightful "social" was given last Monday night in the East End Baptist Church, in honor of the retiring pastor, the Rev. Joel T. Tucker, and his family. The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated with shaded lamps and cut flowers. There was special music and singing, which served greatly to enliven singing, which served greatly to enliven the occasion.

The duet rendered so sweetly by Misses Ethel Adkins and Lily Kelly was greatly admired. Miss Emmett, of Newport News, was also present, and held the attention of the crowd by her vocal selections, which she rendered in a most charming manner. Mr. James Melton was in attendance with his graphophone, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Dr. Derleux, of the Venable Street Baptist Church, an old college-mate, and a true friend of the pastor, was present, and delivered an address. He spoke in beautiful and benitting words of the pastor and of the honest toil, the faithful and untiring service he has given to the church for the fifteen years he has been with them. He added that he would not only be missed in the church, and in the eastern portion of the city, and people of every denomination.

At the conclusion of his remarks he prewice he has given to the church for the fifteen years he has been with them. He added that he would not only be missed in the church, and in the eastern portion of the city, but by people all over the city, and people of every denomination.

At the conclusion of his remarks he presented the pastor with a handsome purse, the gift of the Ladies' Ald Society of the church. The gift was a great surprise

God's Love.

Under the above citic, the words of tan, with hat and gloves to match, a beautiful soing, written by Mrs. May Walton Kent, of Wytheville, Va., and 5axe Holme, and set to smusic by Mrs. Kent, are glyen.

The song will be read with pleasure by the composer's many Richmond friends, It is dedicated to Mrs. Kent's husband, Mr. Tyler G. Kent, and will be sung by some of the finest vocalists in Richmond at little later in the season.

Like a cradle, rocking, Tille at the season.

Like a mother's sweet looks dropping, On the little face below.

Dast-End. She will wear a traveling gown of tan, with hat and gloves to match, Messrs. G. R. Fóx, brother of the groom, and B. P. Vass will be the attendants. After the ceremony Mr. Fox and his bride will take quite an extended wedding trip in the source of the finest vocalists in Richmond and Mrs. Louis Gurdes, to Mr. Oscar V. Sessoms, in the First Presbyterian Church, October 5th, and that of Miss Minnic Amelia, che daughter of Mr. Acham Diacont was on hand, and, The testified to the love he felt for the susual with his fun and merry making. Tucker with a beautiful worsted quilt, the gift and workmanship of the ladies of the church.

Refreshments were then served, after which the crowd dispersed, leaving with the pastor and his family their best which the crowd dispersed, leaving with the paster and his family their best wishes for a bright, prosperous and happy

Ine Smart Set Elsewhere.

Lord and Lady Bagot, who are spending the autumn at "Rugely," their beautiful country home, at Bilthfield, in Staffordshire, England, are having a series of house parties. Lady Bagot, it will be remembered, was Miss Lily May, formerly of Baltimore, Lady Bagot is the sister of Georgé May and Mrs. John S. Gittings, who still reside in Raltimore. Gittings, who still reside in Baltimore and is the aunt of Miss Gladys Gittings one of the most popular young girls here. "Rugely" is a most enchanting place and contains many articles of great and historic value.

All of Nebraska City, Neh., was excited yesterday afternoon over the marriage of Miss Jean Morton, the daughter of Mp. Joy Morton, of Chicago, a niceo of Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton and a tary of the Navy, Paul Morton, and R granddaughter of Mr. J. Sterling Morton to Mr. Joseph Cudahy, of the firm of Cudahy Bros.

Cudahy Bros.

Abor Lodge, the country home of the Mortons, was profusely decorated with palms, roses and orchids. Hishop Spauling celebrated the nupritals and the Secretary of the Navy came to the wedding on a special car from Washington. Miss Pauline Morton, the Secretary's daughter, was maid of hohor, and Misses Clark and table Cudahy are professional to the Secretary of the Navy Came and Misses Clark and table Cudahy are professional to the Secretary of the Navy Came and C Julia Cudahy were bridesmaids. Mr. Ed-ward Cudahy was best man. Other at-tendants included Messrs. John Cudahy, Sterling Morton, Frederick McLaughlin and Clive Runnells.

Mrs. George A. Huhn, Jr., of Philadel-phia gave a large tea on the club house phia, gave a large tea on the club house

over Square,

Opening Dance.

The opening dance of Mrs. James Welch's class will be given next Tuesday afternoon, October 4th, at 4 o'clock in the hall, No. 995 Floyd Avenue.

The announcement will be read with of the Retreat for the Sick, and the party is gotten up for the benefit of that institution.

The ladies have extended their invitation so that it includes grown people of both sexes and children. They promise to give special attention to gentlemen who may accompany them, and to little people without chaperones.

The comfort of all classes and individuals will be their first thought. For further particulars readers are referred to Miss Ellyson or Mrs. Rahm.

Von Schilling—Howard.

Von Schilling-Howard. . The Hampton Monitor of Saturday con-tained the following interesting announce-tained the following interesting announcement:

Invitations were issued Friday afternoon by the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucy M. Howard, to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Martha Wynne Howard, to Mr. Leopold Marshall von Schilling, which will take place Tuesday afternoon, October 18th, at 5:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church of this city. At this most happy event Miss Lucy Minson, cousin of the bride, of Richmond, Va., will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Lawrence Priddy, nee Harwood, of Baitimore, will be matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mabel Sclater and Hima von Schilling, of Hampton, and Miss Florence May Holt, of Newport Nows, The best man will be Mr. Louis Heffelfinger, of this city. The ushers will be Messra, Arthur Lee, William C. L. Tallaferro, George B. Young, George S. Booker, Richard M. Booker and Messard Armstrong. The bridal coupie will leave on the evening steamer for an extensive tour, returning about November 1st.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter sailed from New York for Paris by the Deutsch.

Mrs. Thomas H. Russell, at Short Hills, New Jersey.

Miss Marie Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Potts, has entered Miss Mason's school, "The Castle," at Tarry-town, on the Hudson.

Mrs. Simpkins, who is visiting Mrs. S W. Travers, has received a cordial wel-come from the many friends made dur-ing her residence in this city. Captain Trippe, of the United States army, and family will be with Miss Pitzer, at No. 115 East Franklin Street, for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Atkinson and family have returned to Richmond.

Major and Mrs. Thomas Pinckney, of Charleston, S. C., who are now at the St. Louis Exposition, expect to visit Rich-mond on their way home.

Mrs. P. W. Mayo and Mrs. Thomas N Carter are spending some time in . New York.

Mr. Willie Stokes and Miss Elise Stokes have taken an apartment for the winter at No. 201 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. Margaret S. Winn has sold her home on Macshall Street, and with her daughters, the Misses Winn, will be at No. 59 East Grace Street for the ensuing year.

Mrs Philip Tallaferro and little daughters have returned from a pleas to friends in Culpeper county.

Judge and Mrs. Edmund Waddill, the Misses Waddill and Master Mitchell Waddill, who spent the summer at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, are just back from a pleasant visit to the St. Louis Fair,

Mr. Charles Lathrop and family are located in their new home on West Grace Street.

Miss Mary Lewis is visiting friends in

Mrs. Raulston, of Birmingham, Ala., visited her sister, Mrs. H. B. Watkins,

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS

BAKING POWDER last week. She left Saturday for New York, and will spend the winter abroad, perfecting herself in the study of art.

Miss Helen Christian has returned from a charming visit to Miss Bessie Walker in Albemarie country.

Mr. Allen Freeman and his brother, Mr. Douglas Freeman, will leave to-morrow for Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Mr. Douglas Freeman, who graduated at the Richmond College last June, will enter the department of history at Johns Hopkins. Mr. Allen Freeman enters this October upon his fourth year in the university. He was one of twelve students distinguisred by having work given them during the past summer.

Mrs. James Walker is spending some time in New York.

Miss Louise Randolph, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Mayo, left for home on Friday.

Mrs. John Skelton Williams will leave this week to spend some time in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wortham will be at No. 305 West Franklin Street this win-

Mr. Thomas M. Gibson and sister, Miss

Miss Ruth Totty has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Richardson, at Kilmarnock, Va.

to-day,

Mrs. George P. Welsh is visiting her sister, Mrs. Georgia Taliaterro Grayson, at her historic home, "Salubria," near Stevensburg, Culpeper county.

Miss Mary Booth Walker, of Farmville, is now visiting in Richmond, the guest of Miss Margaret Sprattcy.

Mrs. W. W. Sprattey is spending some time in Oxford, N. C., where she is visiting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Davis, Mrs. Davis is pleasantly remembered as Miss Rosa Booth Spratley, of Richmond.

Miss Kate Price, who has been spend-

Infants in lavish variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Brydon Tennant will occupy a house at the corner of Grace and Laurel Streets this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wortham will have a house if the same block.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Williams registered at the Waldorf Hotel,

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bryan are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax at Mr. Fairfax's country home in Lou-

Miss Cally Ryland is visiting Mrs. C. E. Buck, in Albemarie county.

. . . Mr. Frank Davenport is registered al Manhattan Club, New York.

Mrs, Levin Joynes leaves this week to be the guest of her mother in New York

Elizabeth White Gibson, will return Mon-day after a delightful visit of two weeks in New York city.

Miss Ora Pemberton, of No. 107 East Clay Street, who has been visiting her grandfather, Dr. P. P. Moore, of Han-over, Va., for the last two months, has returned to the city.

Mrs. T. E. Haynes and children have returned to the city after summering at Virginia Beach.

Miss Mamie F. Hughes, who has been spending the past fifteen days at the St. Louis Exposition, is expected home to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Millikin, of No. 1212 1-2 East Broad Street, left yester-day morning for a ten days' visit to Mrs. Charles Bass, of Powhatan county,

(Continued on Sixth Page.)

$2.00 PRIZE TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

aufmann Too

The school child in Richmond, Manchester or suburbs, who sends in the greatest number of votes for his or her teacher before next Saturday in the QUAKER GELATINE POPULAR TEACHER CONTEST, will receive a $2.00 cash prize. One coupon in each package of Quaker Gelatine. Each coupon entitles you to one yote. Miss Laura J. McCabe, of Springfield School, leads the contest this week.

INTERSTATE CHEMICAL CO.

BALTIMORE, MD. KELLEY & DUDLEY, Sole Agents, Richmond, Va.

ARASIS STANKSKAN

ing apparel for Women, Misses and the Juveniles.

Dress and Pedestrienne Skirts.

Hair Ornaments.

Silk, Lace, and Woolen Waists.

Silk Petticoats, Lingerie.

The Newest Features in Fall and Winter Fashions

In Complete and Splendid Array

Every department is now replete with the Favored Styles in wear-

HE DISTINCTIVE interest which greets our first showings of new styles reflects the public's confidence in the character of the merchandise maintained by this house; years of experience in supplying the exacting demands of those who require the best that can be obtained has had its ele-

The garments and accessories comprising the following dis-

vating effect upon the selection of our most moderate priced lines; the same taste and experience required to provide the one are also devoted to the other; thus insuring authorative style, combined with dependable quality to every patron, be their selections from the highest priced or from the plays are offered with the knowledge that they are faultless.

Millinery The Fine and Superfine.
The Medium Priced and the Inexpensive.

Tailored Suits | Silk Suits, Cloth Suits.

Veils, Belts, Gloves, Novelty Hand Bags, Hosiery, Ribbons.

and an unparalleled array of Bonnets, Coats, Dresses and Finery for Children and save money at the same time. You have a happy chance this LOOK.

As Correct as They Are New.

$250 Planos, while they last, $125 $300 Planos, while they last, $150 $350 Planos, while they last, $175 $400 Planos, while they last, $200 $500 Planos, while they last, $250

FERGUSSON BROS., 11 WEST BROAD,

For sale by all confectioners.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

C. & O. Sunday Outings To Continue Until Oct. 16. ROUND-$1.00-TRIP

NOTE CHANGE OF SCHEDULE RETURNING.

Leave Richmond 8:30 and 9 A. M. Returning, first train leaves Norfolk (via Point 7:15 P. M., arrive Richmond 9:15. NO STOPS, Second train leaves Norfolk via C. & O. STEAMER, 7:15 P. M. Leaves Newport News 8:10 P. M., arrive Richmond 19:25 P. M. $1.00 round trip to Old Point, Ocean View and Norfolk; Cape Heary and Virginia Beach, 11.25.

A Little Information.

Neck Fixings.

Rainy Day Apparel.

How Our Work is Made. The shoulders in all Coats are HAND-TAILORED and "worked out" by a method of our own, which will insure perfectly moulded shoulders, free from all "breaks" or wrinkles. The fronts of Coats will be so handled as to provent breaking, losing their shape or rolling backwards.

ing backwards,
Every garment is made in our own workshop on the premises and under my own personal supervision. Suits from $15.00 Up Sanderson, Cluett & Co., 713 East Main Street,

M. SALOMONSKY, Mgr.
Economy combined with excel-

T. W. TIGNOR'S SON JAMES C. TIGNOR, PROP., Wholesale and Retail Dealer In GUNS, RIFLES, PISTOLS, FISHING TACKLE

and Sporting Goods

Repair Work Neatly and Promptly Done.

1719 Franklin St. Richmond, Va Phone 832.

A NY household article which is now in the way can be readily sold or exchanged by a Tee-Dee Want. Costs only one cent a word.

Quarles